

TENNESSEE ASSOCIATION OF DANCE
MARGARET MARTIN AWARD
CRITERIA

The Margaret Martin Award is TAD's highest honor. Named for one of the founding board members of the organization, the award is given to those who have made an impact on the Tennessee community.

The Award recognizes consistently outstanding contributions in furthering the public image and accessibility of dance in Tennessee. This Award will only be presented for exceptional and significant service to dance.

Candidates for this Award may encompass individuals as well as organizations, and need not be limited to performing artists, teachers, or choreographers. Candidates should have been actively involved with dance for at least five years.

Areas of service to dance include but are not limited to:

- Artistic Achievement
- Arts Management
- Audience Development
- Complimentary Arts Activity (journalism, technical support, photography, etc.)
- Education
- Funding
- Volunteer Service

An application form is to be submitted with three letters of recommendation.
